PRESS RELEASE

Marblehead Counseling Center promotes Marie C. Ouellette
July 19, 2010

The Marblehead Counseling Center is pleased to announce that Marie Ouellette, MSW, LICSW, was recently promoted to the position of Clinical Director. Her new role will involve oversight of all clinical services including quality of care, clinical programming, and case management as well as providing therapy to clients of all ages. Ms. Ouellette has a BS and a Masters in Social Work from Salem State College. She has over 18 years of counseling experience with adults, children and families in a variety of issues such as divorce, separation, depression, anxiety, phobias, and loss. She has consulted with schools on behavioral management issues. Her experience includes a post-graduate certification in trauma treatment (EMDR). Marie is committed to continually explore existing and innovative treatment techniques and modalities.

Marie strongly believes that every person is unique. Her approach is always individualized. In a safe and supportive environment, Marie works with each client to develop the most effective ways to address that person's needs and goals in order to promote positive change.

Paul Crosby, LICSW, the Executive Director of The Center said, "Marie's extensive clinical experience and commitment to superior client care are great assets to our clients."

The Counseling Center's services are available Monday through Friday, 9am to 8pm. For inquiries, call 781.631.8273.
